Jane B. Thompson

Statement of Purpose

The National Right to Life Jane B. Thompson Oratory Contest strives to promote the ability of high school juniors and seniors to share their pro-life views with others. Although speaking ability is important, this contest also seeks to help teens organize and express their pro-life views. We also strive to give the contestants an opportunity to meet other pro-life teens.

Contest Requirements

Students must research and write an original 5-7 minute speech to be presented as an oration on one of the following topics: • Abortion • Infanticide • Euthanasia

Prizes

- State Winner receives trip to compete in the National Right to Life Oratory Contest.
- National Winners win cash awards for 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th place.

The National Right to Life Jane B. Thompson Oratory Contest is held each year in conjunction with the National Right to Life Convention. High school juniors and seniors write and present original pro-life speeches. Contests are sponsored by many state right to life groups, and the winners of the state contests compete at the national level.

Deadline to enter Arkansas contest February 15th each year.
