47th Annual March for Life set for January 19, 2025

LITTLE ROCK – The 47th Annual March for Life is set for 2 p.m., Jan. 19, 2025, along Capital Avenue to the steps of the Arkansas State Capitol.

This observance is a peaceful and prayerful event that attracts thousands of Arkansans from across the state including churches and families to remember the estimated 60-plus million unborn children killed by legal abortion.

The event, sponsored by Arkansas Right to Life, will remember the Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion in the United States on January 22, 1973. Arkansas was recently named the most pro-life state in the nation for the 5th consecutive year by Americans United for Life.

“Arkansas continues to march and remember the unborn children who were killed by legal abortion in our state during the 49½ years of Roe v. Wade and mourn the loss of life by those who obtain abortions in our state illegally and in other states who do not protect the innocent unborn and their mothers,” said Rose Mimms, executive director of Arkansas Right to Life. “We will tirelessly work to support pregnant mothers and save unborn children from those who demand unlimited and unregulated abortion regardless of the consequences to mothers, fathers, and families.”

Staging for the march begins at 1:30 p.m. at State Street. At 2 p.m., marchers and elected officials, dignitaries, and other special guests will walk to the steps of the State Capitol for a brief program featuring abortion survivor Lauren Eden, keynote speaker, Rev. Jim Lagrone, and Father Mauricio Carrasco. For more information on the 2025 March for Life event visit artl.org/march-for-life.

Arkansas Right to Life, the state’s oldest and largest pro-life organization, is an affiliate of the National Right to Life Committee, the leading voice of the voiceless dedicated to protecting all human beings threatened by abortion, infanticide, and euthanasia. For more information visit artl.org.
